*Remark:

1. The quotation is only for general cargo consolidation goods, such as FCL, air or dangerous goods, etc., which need to be quoted separately;
2. Once undeclared and infringing items of intellectual property rights are found, they will be subject to confiscation and high fines;
3. All transported goods must be truthfully declared and consistent with the manifest to ensure the legality and accuracy of the goods shipped, as well as comply with the customs regulations of the relevant countries of entry and exit. Exhibitors are requested to provide accurate customs declaration lists before the deadline of the documents, and then send them to the collection warehouse after our company confirms, otherwise all responsibilities caused by this will be borne by the exhibitor.
4. If the exhibits involve batteries, please be sure to provide the battery appraisal report in advance, and then enter the warehouse after our company confirms. Otherwise, all responsibilities and consequences arising therefrom shall be borne by the exhibitor himself
5. If the cargo is less than one container capacity, the cost will also be adjusted.
6. Please note that due to the current fuel market caused by the US-Iraq conflict and the impact on the shipping and air freight markets, sea freight and air freight rates are likely to continue to rise. The relevant fees are for reference only. The specific transportation costs are subject to the actual shipment time.

Timing

Dear exhibitors,

To facilitate the timely shipment of your exhibits, please note the following deadlines:

Service content	Sea freight (Shanghai)	Sea freight (Shenzhen)	By air

5. Packaging requirements

- 1). During long-distance transportation, exhibits need to be transferred, loaded and unloaded multiple times by a variety of means of transportation, and sometimes stored outdoors. To ensure the safety of the exhibits, the packaging must be strong and reusable, suitable for repacking by sea and after the exhibition.

- 2). Straw, waste newspaper, etc. are prohibited from being used as packaging liners in the packaging box. It is strictly forbidden to use softwood logs as packaging materials for exhibits, and wood with bark is also strictly prohibited. Otherwise, the goods will be seized at the port. To avoid risks to your and other exhibitors' goods, do not use log packaging. If you need to use wooden boxes, be sure to use sheets that have been pressed and molded at high temperatures as the packaging material.
- 3). Please use a strong new carton or new wooden box for small items, which can withstand repeated loading and unloading over long distances. It is strictly forbidden to use old cardboard boxes or old wooden boxes or wooden boxes that have been eroded or rotten by insects. All wooden boxes must not have bark inside or out.
- 4). ATA documents, consumable (brochures, small gifts without commercial value, etc.), permanent export goods need to be packaged separately and independently.
- 5). The goods contain batteries, liquids (ink), powders and other items, and must provide MSDS and shipping appraisal reports, which can only be shipped after being approved by the shipping company
- 6). In order to ensure the safety of the transportation of exhibits, please pay special attention to the bottom corner and overall reinforcement of the mechanical equipment when packing, and it is best to use bolts or screws that can be used repeatedly to avoid permanent damage to the packaging box during on-site unpacking. The packaging box should be sturdy and durable, with a sling or bottom support, suitable for repeated loading and unloading and long-distance transportation, and the required international cargo transportation marks should be marked on the outside of the box, such as the lifting point, the direction of upward placement (↑), "machine FACE", "The center of gravity position", etc.
- 7). The outer packaging of exhibits above 500 kg should indicate the center of gravity and lifting point, and provide drawings of the lifting point of the machine.
- 8). Please fill in all items in the box box one by one, and do not place items that are not related to the exhibits (such as booth cleaning supplies, personal belongings, office stationery, etc.). If additional costs incurred due to false declarations are borne by the exhibitor, the exhibitor shall bear them.

9). If the machine has been debugged beforehand, please put the water added to the machine clean to avoid rust.

5. Transportation insurance

Our company can handle insurance on behalf of you, insurance premium: value x 0.6%; Minimum RMB 200/ticket.

Exhibitors can also arrange their own transportation insurance, because there are inevitably links that our company cannot directly control during transportation, which may cause damage to your goods, so our company can only ensure that the outer packaging of your goods is intact, please understand! It is recommended that your company insure the goods and prepare reliable packaging to avoid unnecessary losses and disputes.
